

The Classical Association of Virginia

2012 CLASSICAL ESSAY CONTEST

- The CAV Classical Essay Contest is designed to recognize those students who have submitted outstanding essays in English on a topic appropriate to each level or class.
- The contest is open to students in the public and private middle and high schools of Virginia, and homeschoolers, whose teachers are current members of the Classical Association of Virginia.
- Please note changes in the Third Year and Advanced Level categories as detailed below.
- Essays shall be submitted in English on the following topics in the following divisions:
 - First Year Latin: An Afternoon at the Roman Baths
(Division A for grades 6-8; Division B for grades 9-12)
 - Second Year Latin: Gladiators in Roman Society
 - Third Year Latin: Slavery in the ancient Roman World
 - Advanced Latin (Latin III and above*):
 - Vergil: Mercy Granted and Withheld in the *Aeneid
 - Poetry: The Anxiety of Fidelity in Roman Love Poetry
 - *History: Slavery in the ancient Roman World

* N.B. Students who are in their third year of Latin who choose to do the general third year topic will be judged only with other Third Year students. They may also submit an essay in one of the advanced topics. This is so that we do not prevent students who are in their third year and doing one of the advanced authors from writing on the author they are currently studying. Those essays will be judged in the same pool as the advanced level students.

 N.B. The history topic is open to both Latin 3 and Latin 4+ students, and will be graded in separate groups.

N.B. Students at the Third Year and Advanced levels may submit essays in more than one category

- Essays should be roughly 1000 words, typed double space on single sides of the page.
- The first page of the essay may include a title. The student's name should not appear on any page of the essay, and the pages of the essay should be numbered.
- Each entry must come with a COVER PAGE that shall include:
 - name and home address of the contestant;
 - name and address (with city or district) of the school;
 - name of the teacher;
 - year of Latin studied in 2011-2012 (First, Second, etc.);
 - student's grade level;
 - essay topic.

- No help may be received from any person in the research, preparation, and/or writing of the essay. Books and electronic sources may (indeed, generally should) be consulted, provided that all research is completed by the student and proper acknowledgement of intellectual property is given. A list of sources and works cited should be provided at the end of the essay on a separate page. A good on-line source for help in the formal preparation of an essay is Purdue's online writing lab (OWL), which can be found at:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/search.php>
- Teachers, of course, are allowed to guide students toward the types of reference material to consult, and provide general instruction on the writing of a good essay. However, teachers must not provide any editorial feedback to the students. That is, they should not be reading and commenting on their students' essays before the final form in which they will be submitted.
- Essays should present a clear, coherent synthesis of material researched. A lively and well-organized essay is better than a laundry list of facts. Judges look for verve and imagination in the writing, and not merely quantity of research. To this end, it has been the policy to accept essays that are closer to creative writing exercises than to the traditional expository essay. It is to be understood, however, that the same amount of factual content and critical thought must be in evidence in whatever form the essay takes. It should be noted as well that what appears to be a creative approach to writing an essay begins to look less and less creative when essay after essay is written in the same pattern.
- The fee is $2.00 per student. Teachers who are not members of CAV should send their dues of $15.00 with the entrance fee. Make checks payable to the Classical Association of Virginia. Ineligible entries will be discarded.
- Please note that by entering this contest you are giving the Classical Association of Virginia consent to publish your name in its official publications. Winners' names will be published on the CAV website and in the CAV newsletter.
- Note also, new for 2012: the winning essays will be posted on the CAV website in PDF form. If students does not want their names published and / or essays posted, they should please add a note to that effect on their cover page.
- The postmark deadline is February 15, 2012. Entries postmarked later will not be accepted. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded at the Spring meeting. All entries should be sent to:
