IN MEMORIAM DIANE F. HATCH (1942-2018)

By Liane Houghtalin

Diane F. Hatch, Life Member of the CAV and longtime professor of Classics at the University of Mary Washington, passed away on October 13, 2018, in Fredericksburg, Virginia, following a long illness.

Born and raised in Savannah, Georgia, Diane received her bachelor's degree in Latin from Sweet Briar College and her M.A. and Ph.D. in Classical Philology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Diane joined the Mary Washington faculty in 1966, and was granted the title "Professor Emerita of Classics" upon her retirement in 2000. Diane took a particular interest in the Odes of Horace, the topic of her M.A. thesis, and in Virgil, the subject of her Ph.D. dissertation. She co-authored with Elizabeth A. Clark, the book The Golden Bough, the Oaken Cross: The Virgilian Cento of Faltonia Betitia Proba (1981), a fascinating study of Proba's fourth century retelling of the creation of the world and the life of Jesus entirely constructed out of lines from Virgil.

Diane was known as an exacting instructor. Former students often recall that they simply did not dare to show up underprepared for one of her classes—a level of expectation that they appreciated when they themselves went on to graduate school and careers as teachers. Former students also recall her sense of humor. Alumni still talk of how, once in a great while, she would walk into an advanced Latin class with a box of special pastries, set the box on the table, look around, and demand "Who is worthy?" Oh, to have one's translation deemed as "worthy" on that day!

Diane saw Classics at Mary Washington safely through the churning waters of the 1960s, 70s, and 80s, when Classics programs were in great danger of disappearing throughout the United States.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Salvete, amici et amicae,

The days are shorter and the nights longer, so it is time to gather around the hearth each night and recite the legends of old. I know that I was heartened last year when, in the midst of the film The Darkest Hour, not only did Winston Churchill start reciting from Macaulay's Lays of Ancient Rome, but another character finished the quote. "To every man upon this earth / Death cometh soon or late. / And how can man die better / Than facing fearful odds, ... For the ashes of his fathers, / And the temples of his Gods."

Classics has good reason to celebrate—the American Classical League will be 100 years old in 2019. There will be gatherings around the country to mark this auspicious centennial, and the CAV is doing its best to join in. Our Spring 2019 meeting will be devoted to honoring the ACL in two ways. First, the meeting's theme will be "pedagogy." Attendees should walk away with information, ideas, and resources that they can immediately put into use in the classroom. Second, the meeting will close with a proper birthday party for the ACL, complete with a birthday cake. You won't be required to wear a party hat, but there will be prizes. So, mark your calendars now to join us for that special CAV meeting and celebration of the ACL at Randolph-Macon College in Ashland on Sat. May 4, 2019.

Tied into the theme of pedagogy, the CAV is also currently arranging for a special teachers' workshop this spring at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts on Greek and Roman mythology in works of art within the museum. Stay tuned for more information on how to register. Registration information will be distributed via the CAV website, an email blast, and the next newsletter. (Do we have your current email address? If not, send it to me now, and please indicate whether you would like it to be included on the CAV website.)

Ever wish that your membership and participation in the CAV received more notice from your principal or dean? The CAV is starting something new: CAV Star Institutions. Every year, in the summer issue of the newsletter, we will list those schools and colleges that have 100% membership among their full-time Classics faculty and at least 80% membership among their part-time Classics faculty. Make sure that your institution is on the list! Promote membership now, so that you can demonstrate to your administration that your school is a force within the discipline.

Ex animo,
Liane
lhoughta@umw.edu

When I arrived at Mary Washington in the mid-1990s, Classics there was once again in danger, as the administration looked for a small program or two to cut. I was greatly impressed at how Diane, who was just a few years short of retirement, was willing to sit down with me and rework the entire Classics curriculum, complete with several new courses and the reworking of many old ones, in order to take advantage of the college's new general education requirements. There are not many teachers who are prepared to teach a lineup of new courses so late in their career, but Diane wanted to leave Classics at Mary Washington in a strong position—and she did.

Diane is survived by her sister, Malinda Hatch; her brother, Josiah Hatch; three nephews; and their children. She is remembered by her family and friends for her many diverse passions, including ones for Latin and Greek, dogs, and the Carolina Tar Heels basketball team. A memorial gathering will be held on Friday November 30, 2018, from 4-6 pm, at University Center 315 (the Colonnade Room), located on the Fredericksburg Campus of the University of Mary Washington. Diane's family suggests that in lieu of flowers, donations in Diane's memory may be made to the Fredericksburg Regional SPCA, 10819 Courthouse Rd., Fredericksburg, VA 22408. Ave atque vale, Diane Hatch.

ARTHUR F. STOCKER LATIN ESSAY CONTEST
Spring 2019

- The contest is free and open to all students of K-12 Latin in the Commonwealth of Virginia whose teachers are current members of the Classical Association of Virginia. Encourage your students to participate!
- All entries must be submitted through the Latin teacher, who is asked to verify each student's level of Latin.
- Essays must be written entirely in Latin and must be on the subject prescribed for the level of Latin the contestant is taking.

First-year Latin
De bello Punico secundo
(100–200 words)

Second-year Latin
De cultu Iunonis apud Romanos
(150–250 words)

Advanced Latin
De Medea filia et sorore
(200–300 words)

Receipt Deadline: Monday, April 1, 2019

Teachers should send students' Latin Essays to:

John F. Miller
Department of Classics
University of Virginia
B018 Cocke Hall, PO Box 400788
Charlottesville, VA 22904-4788

RULES:

1. Each essay should have a cover sheet which includes:
 - a) The full name of the contestant;
 - b) Full home address;
 - c) Name of Latin teacher;
 - d) Name and address of school.
2. The contestant's name should appear in the upper right-hand corner of the essay.
3. No help from any person is permitted in the preparation of this essay. Reference books may be used, such as those on grammar, dictionaries, and volumes on ancient literature and culture. Provide a bibliography of any works consulted at the end of the essay.
4. Judging will be based both upon the content of the essay and on Latin usage, but the correctness of the Latin will be the most important single factor. Contestants should make a conscious effort to incorporate as many as possible of the new syntactical features of the Latin language that they have encountered for the first time in the level of Latin for which they are currently enrolled.
5. The names of the winners in each competition and of those receiving honorable mention will be announced at the spring meeting of the CAV in May. Entries will not be returned after judging. By entering this competition students are giving the CAV permission to publish their names and/or essays in any of the official publications. This permission is given unless a student makes a written request to the contrary.

2019 CLASSICAL ESSAY CONTEST

- The CAV Classical Essay Contest is designed to recognize those students who have submitted outstanding essays in English on a topic appropriate to each level or class.
- The contest is open to students in the public and private middle and high schools of Virginia, and homeschoolers, whose teachers are current members of the Classical Association of Virginia.
- Essays shall be submitted in English on the following topics in the following divisions:
Level 1: Mama, Life Had Just Begun: Growing Up In Ancient Rome
Level 2: So You Think You Can Love Me and Leave Me To Die?: Story of Theseus and Ariadne
Level 3: Open Your Eyes/Look Up To the Skies and See: Use of Augury in Roman Religion
Advanced Latin (Level 3+)
Vergil: I See a Little Silhouette of a Man: Marcellus in the Underworld
History: Mamma Mia, Mamma Mia, Let Me Go: Nero's Relationship with Agrippina
Poetry: Is This the Real Life? Is This Just Fantasy?: Women in Ovid's Pygmalion

As before: students who are in their third year of Latin who choose to do the general third year topic will be judged only with other Third Year students. They may also submit an essay in one of the advanced topics.

Essays should be roughly 1000 words, typed double space on single sides of the page.

The first page of the essay may include a title. The student's name should not appear on any page of the essay, and the pages of the essay should be numbered.

Each entry must come with a COVER PAGE (it is recommended that contestants use the COVER SHEET FORM available on the CONTESTS section of the CAV webpage). The COVER PAGE shall include:

- Name and home address of the contestant;
- Name and address of the school;
- Name of the teacher;
- Year of Latin studied in '18 - '19 (1st, 2nd, etc.);
- Student grade level;
- level of contest;
- Essay topic

Full information: www.cavclassics.org/contests.htm

- 1) Participants may email the essay to me directly as an attachment. (nadiaghosheh@gmail.com)
- 2) Participants may mail it to me at the following address:

Nadia Ghosheh
Director of CAV Classical Essay Contest
5809 Chase Commons Ct, Apt 205
Burke, VA 22015

Postmark deadline: Friday February 22nd

The fee is $2.00 per student. Ineligible entries will be discarded. Teachers who are not members of CAV should send their $20.00 dues with the entrance fee. Make checks payable to the Classical Association of Virginia.

Please note: Students, unless they make a written request otherwise, are giving the CAV permission to publish their names and work in any official publications. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded at the Spring meeting.

CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF VIRGINIA
THE 89TH ANNUAL LATIN TOURNAMENT

EXAMINATIONS:

The exams are designed to test the student's mastery of the Latin language and, in the case of the upper level exams, some basic literary matter at that particular level of study. Exams will consist of questions on vocabulary, forms, syntax, (where appropriate) rhetorical and poetic devices, and reading passages for translation to show active and accurate comprehension. Each exam will include 75 multiple-choice questions and a 25-point Latin passage for translation into English.

TESTS OFFERED:

There are five tests offered, depending on the level of the student. A syllabus for each exam may be found on the CAV website. The tests are:

- Latin I
- Latin II
- Intermediate Latin Prose
- Advanced Latin Prose: based upon prose authors including Cicero and Caesar, as well as Livy, Seneca, Pliny or others
- Advanced Latin Poetry: based upon authors such as Vergil, Catullus, Ovid, Horace, and other poets

STRUCTURE OF COMPETITION:

Schools in Virginia may compete in one of three divisions:

- Alpha (secondary and intermediate public schools)
- Beta (independent and private schools)
- Gamma (charter, magnet, and governor's schools)

All teachers entering contestants MUST be members of the CAV.

Not yet a member? Join today!

Non-members may join by sending in dues with the Registration Form. Dues are $20 per person. If this is your first year teaching Latin in Virginia, you are eligible for one year's free membership.

REGISTRATION:

Teachers must submit their registration postmarked by Wednesday, February 13, 2019. Competition fee is $3.00 per student, non-refundable.

Try the tournament for free your first year! Your students may compete free of charge if your school is registering for the first time or has not registered in the past five years.

SYLLABUS & FURTHER INFORMATION:

Please visit the CAV website (www.cavclassics.org) or email Kevin Jefferson, the Latin Tournament Director (kevinsjefferson@gmail.com).

THE WAYNE W. WRAY STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

The Classical Association of Virginia is pleased to offer a $500.00 scholarship to the student who best exemplifies the principle on which the organization was founded over a century ago: a love of and promotion of the classics. This award is not based on financial need and there may be more than one nominee per school. Any CAV member may nominate a student who is taking or has completed at least four years of Latin (wherever that may fall - 10th, 11th, or 12th grade). Should a sophomore or junior be selected, the scholarship will be held for disbursement until the senior year. The form is available online at cavclassics.org/awards.htm. Nominations must be postmarked by March 15, 2019 to:

Donald Brewster (donald.brewster@woodberry.org)
4 Woodberry Station
Woodberry Forest, VA 22989

CAV STAR INSTITUTIONS

Starting in 2019, The Classical Association of Virginia will be recognizing select institutions as CAV Star Institutions. In order to qualify, a school or institution must have 100% Classics faculty membership (or 80% part-time Classics faculty membership). All CAV Star Institutions will be featured in the Summer 2019 newsletter. Please send your completed membership form along with $20 dues, made out to The Classical Association of Virginia, to CAV Treasurer Andrea Weiskopf. N.B. Membership is FREE to full-time undergraduate and graduate students, and it is FREE for one year to new members. A LIFETIME membership is available for a one-time payment of $300.00. Recognition as a CAV Star Institution is free, but to be recognized, someone at the institution will need to fill out and return the form that will appear in the next newsletter.

CAV Teacher Placement Service

Do you know of a Latin teaching position in your area? Or are you currently searching for a Latin teaching position? The CAV Placement Service offers a free program to bring together teachers seeking Latin positions in Virginia and schools in Virginia which are seeking Latin teachers. Schools send us listings of their positions, and we send these listings by e-mail to the teachers who have registered with the CAV Placement Service. We provide continuous updates from March until September. If you know of a position available, have the school principal or personnel office get in touch with the service. If you wish a position, send in your name and e-mail address. We ask schools and teachers to contact Jon D. Mikalson by e-mail at: jdm9x@virginia.edu. There are no charges for these services!
