

CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF VIRGINIA
Saturday, September 10, 2011
Minutes of the Business Meeting
Newcomb Hall
University of Virginia

President Becker called the meeting to order at 10:06.

The minutes of the May meeting were approved as posted on the website.

Janice Siegel and Patty Lister were introduced as the new Membership Chairs. Their focus is three-fold:

- *to get more people involved in CAV from both the colleges and high schools
- *to get CAV involved in other organizations
- *to work on data base

Margaret Hicks announced the formation of a Professional Development Fund and asked for volunteers to serve on an Ad Hoc Committee to set the requirements of this fund.

Lindsey Herndon was introduced as the new Newsletter Editor. The membership gratefully thanked Cathy Daugherty for her service.

Laurie Covington will head the Nominating Committee to select officers for 2012-2014. The vote will occur at the spring meeting. Laurie thanked Charlene Lunsford and Joe Romero for their service the past two years as Members-at-Large. The two new members are Donna Brewster of Woodberry Forest and Rick Phillips of Virginia Tech.

Treasurer Max Meador gave the report which will also appear in the next edition of the Newsletter.

Margaret Hicks gave Ian Hochberg's Tournament Director report as follows:

- *Registration will be waived for first time participation.
- *Ian thanks all of his exam authors for 2012.
- *He still needs proofreaders for the exams.

Mark Keith announced the Lurlene Todd Teacher of the Year award. The deadline is February 1.

Kevin Gushman announced the Angela Lloyd Book Award for 2012. Alana Lukes was the recipient of the 2011 award and was present today. Kevin Perry asked for volunteers to serve on his committee as Mark Keith and Patty Lister have retired from that committee.

Margaret, in Kevin Perry's absence, announced the Wayne Wray Student Award deadline is the Ides of March.

Membership Co-Chairs Janice Siegel and Patty Lister encouraged the membership to pass along names of new high school and college teachers in Virginia so that their data base can be up to date.

Sue Robertson announced the death of Mary Julia Pomfrey on August 29 at 87 years of age. She had been an active member of CAV and VJCL.

Mark Keith announced availability of the National Latin Exam's new book Three Decades of the NLE for $20 at today's meeting and $30 through the NLE office.

Greg announced that there will be a Saturday Seminar at RMC but the date has not yet been set. Governor's Academy will be at RMC for the next 5 years.

Andy announced for Lianne Houghtalin that CAMWS will be in Baton Rouge in April 2012.

Margaret announced FLAVA October 8 with 6 Latin sessions. There will be a CAV luncheon and Virginia Tech's Rick Phillips will speak. This meeting is the 100th anniversary of FLAVA and there will be a costume parade.

The Virginia Museum of Fine Arts is offering an affiliate membership for Friends of Ancient Art. Dr. Peter Schertz is the Curator of Ancient Art at the museum.

The Hollins Classics Symposium will be on April 1, 2012, with a variety of talks on Dido.

UVA's Mary Crawford, representing John Miller, announced the topics for the Arthur Stocker Latin Essay contest as follows:

First-year Latin

De templo Iovis in Capitolio
(100–200 words)

Second-year Latin

De laboribus Herculis
(150–250 words)

Advanced Latin

De illo bello memorabili apud Actium facto
(200–300 words)

Receipt Deadline: Monday, April 2, 2012

Patrick Bradley announced the Classical Essay Contest as follows:

Division I An Afternoon at the Roman Bath

Division II Gladiators in Roman Society

Division III Slavery in the ancient Roman World

Division IV Vergil: Mercy Granted and Withheld in the Aeneid

Poetry: The Anxiety of Fidelity in Roman Love Poetry
History: Slavery in the ancient Roman World

Lea Ann Grassell announced that the cd of the slide show which was produced for the centennial is still available.

Laurie Covington announced that VJCL is Nov 20-21.

Sue Robertson announced that there were 160 delegates from Virginia at NJCL in Kentucky. The 2012 convention will be at Wake Forest University in Winston Salem.

Introductions

Tal Covington, son of Laurie, and now a teacher in Virginia Beach
Josiah Garten at St. Anne's Belfield in Charlottesville
Kevin Jefferson Woodruff HS
Eliza Tiner at Lynchburg College
Jack Wells, Emory Henry College
Mike Leeber, grad student at VT
Reena Glavis, grad student at VT
Kris Klipfer, Loudon County

The spring meeting will be held at Virginia Tech on May 5, 2012.

Jenny Clay announced that UVA Department of Classics is hosting a series of events during 2011-2012 for Friends of the Classics. Contact the department for more information.

Two papers were delivered at the meeting as follows:

Jack Wells, Associate Professor of History
Emory and Henry
Powerful Women in Ancient Empires: Case Studies from Rome and China

Elza Tiner, Professor of English and Latin
Lynchburg College
Quomodo Scimus? Teaching Reading, Writing and Speaking in Latin through Research on the History of Disciplines

The meeting adjourned at 2:30 and was followed by a reception hosted by the Department of Classics in Cocke Hall.

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Sharrard Montross
Secretary