

CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF VIRGINIA

Saturday, May 8, 2010

Minutes of the Business Meeting

Saint Stephen Saint Agnes School

Alexandria, VA

President Laurie Covington called the meeting to order at 10:07. There were 35 attendees.

It was moved to suspend the reading of the Fall 2009 minutes as they are posted on the CAV website.

Ian Hochberg gave the treasurer's report for the absent Max Meador. It is attached to these minutes. The Centennial fund has a balance of $3800, the General Fund currently has $440.44 and the Tournament Fund $3567.77. The balance of the Angela Lloyd fund is $1248.44, for a grand total of $9060.65. The Angela Lloyd cd has a value of $3531.89 and the treasury cd has a value of $5589.20.

Jon Miller gave the Centennial Report including a handout which is attached to these minutes. CAV will meet on Oct 30 in conjunction with the meeting of CAMWS-SS which runs Oct 30-31. Hunter Rawlings will be the guest speaker at the banquet that evening. Donations in honor or memory of Virginia classicists are still being solicited. An invitation to all CAV members will be sent next month. The Spring 2011 meeting of the CAV will have as its theme "The Past, Present, and Future of Classics in Virginia." and will be held at UVA.

Kevin Perry announced that the 23rd Governor's Latin Academy theme is Nullum Saeclum. The play will be Mostellaria and the performance is July 17. Emily Jusino is Director again this year.

Linda Montross announced that ACL will meet at Wake Forest June 25-26.

Eta Sigma Phi was held at Va Tech and Christine Sleeper received their lifetime achievement award.

Amy Peterson reported that NJCL will be held July 26-August 1 in Fargo, ND, and that VJCL members must have their registrations in by May 15.

President Covington announced that the FLAVA deadline is mid May for submission of program and encouraged CAV members to participate.

The Latin Essay Contest from henceforward will be called the Arthur F. Stocker Latin Essay Contest.

Newcomers and first timers were introduced.

Andy Becker introduced the Chairs of the Scholarship committees who announced the recipients as follows:

Kevin Perry announced the Wayne Wray student winner was Brian Kauder of Midlothian HS. Brian was present to receive his award.

Mark Kieth announced that the Lurlene Todd teacher of year was Sue Robertson of Midlothian HS

Kevin Gushman reported that there had been no nominees for the Angela Lloyd book award.

Classical Essay Contest results were presented by Patrick Bradley and the awards are attached to these minutes.

Arthur F. Stocker Latin Essay Contest winners were announced by Jon Miller..

Latin Tournament

Ian thanked his test writers and proof readers. 662 students from 24 schools participated in this year's contest. Award list is attached to minutes.

The Nominating Committee announced the following officers for 2010-2012:

Andy Becker President
Margaret Hicks Vice President
Linda Montross Secretary
Max Meador Treasurer

The morning's speaker was Martin Winkler of George Mason University and his paper was entitled "The Last Days of Pompeii: From History to Fiction to Film".

After a prepaid buffet luncheon two papers were presented as follows:
Col. Rose Mary Sheldon of VMI presented "The Sneaky Greeks" and Margaret Hicks and Donna Dollings spoke on "Plastered in Stabiae: Archaeo-Newbies on the Bay of Naples.

A reception followed in the lobby.

The meeting adjourned at 3:05.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Sharrard Montross
Secretary