CAV FALL MEETING

The Fall Meeting will be held on a TBD Saturday in September. Stay tuned for the announcement!

ACL Institute 2021 June 21-25 Virtual!!

Because it is online this year, the cost is only $50.

See <https://www.aclclassics.org/ACL-Institute/ACL-Institute-2021> for further information.

A UNIQUE, YET VERY WELCOME SPRING MEETING

In this era of Zoom fatigue, it was truly refreshing to see so many colleagues at the Spring 2021 Classical Association of Virginia meeting. Even though this school year has been a new adventure for us all, this meeting brought a sense of normalcy. Given the strange year, there was only one award given. Kate Tiffany of Fairfax High School was presented with the Angela P. Lloyd Book Award for all of her service to the state of Virginia in the name of Latin. Kate Tiffany along with Thomas Rose were selected as the new At-Large members.

There were also three moving tributes to our lost colleagues: Robert Lloyd, Mark Morford, and Jim Bigger. For those who didn't know, the CAV is creating an award in Jim Bigger's name. We have already raised almost $1700 for the fund! What a fitting tribute to such an outstanding colleague.

John Miller gave us a fantastic talk about Ovid and the Ara Pacis. It was both fascinating and illuminating. After John's talk, however, we tried out something new. Members chose to attend one of three outstanding roundtable discussions. First, we had Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Latin Classroom led by Sherry Doerfler and Woojin Kim. Second was The Enticement of Greece and Rome: Attracting Students and Majors led by Liane Houghtalin and Bart Natoli. Finally, we had Colloquium: Making Oral Latin Accessible in the Classroom led by Stephanie Buckler and Amy Petersen. All three groups had long and meaningful conversations, and I believe I can speak for us all when I say it was one of the most interesting meetings I have attended.

CAV PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A balm for the soul - that was how I felt about seeing so many friendly faces at yesterday's Spring meeting. (In this craziest of years, I see no reason for reining in hyperbole!) More than 40 Virginia classicists were not only in attendance, but most stayed throughout the entire meeting, and a good number lingered even a bit later than the advertised end time. I think many must have felt the same way - despite our "zoom fatigue," the camaraderie of friends and acquaintances was still important enough to dedicate a Saturday morning/ early afternoon.

I'd like to thank our speakers - John Miller who always captivates, this time with a talk on the Ara Pacis -- and Liane Houghtalin, Bart Notolo, Woojin Kim, Sherry Doerfler, Amy Petersen, and Stephanie Buckler, who were game to try a new breakout room format. I think our only regret was not being able to hear all 3 discussions!

As I mentioned yesterday -- as happy as we are to have glimpses of a "return to normal," I don't see us necessarily just reverting back to the way things always were. I think we can glean the best of what we have learned from this challenging year, and emerge better than before. For the CAV, I would like to continue some "virtual" aspect for future meetings, whether we experiment with a hybrid format or perhaps consider one virtual and one in-person meeting per year. Having the meetings open and available for those who can't easily travel (or don't wish to) has been an unexpected boon.

By the time you read this message, some of you may have wrapped up the school year, or at least the end is in sight. I am so proud of us as a profession and what we have accomplished. This has been a year of challenges, yes, but I think we can also say a year of growth -- both of which can be exhausting. Let's be kind to ourselves and take the time and space to rest and rejuvenate. I look forward to seeing you in the fall!

Patty

NUNTIANDA

CAV Teacher Placement Service

Do you know of a Latin teaching position in your area? Or are you currently searching for a Latin teaching position? The CAV Placement Service offers a free program to bring together teachers seeking Latin positions in Virginia and schools in Virginia which are seeking Latin teachers. Schools send us listings of their positions, and we send these listings by e-mail to the teachers who have registered with the CAV Placement Service. We provide continuous updates from March until September. If you know of a position available, have the school principal or personnel office get in touch with the service. If you wish a position, send in your name and e-mail address. We ask schools and teachers to contact Jon D. Mikalson by e-mail at: jdm9x@virginia.edu. There are no charges for these services!

CAV Professional Development Grant

Are you tired of being cooped up all year, vaccinated and ready for some professional travel? Or, have you discovered that you like staying at home on the computer and are now eager to sign up for a virtual conference or online course to help you improve your craft? Whatever your circumstances or preferences, CAV is here to help! Apply for a grant of up to $300 to help with any professional development experience your heart desires by going to bit.ly/CAVGrant. Submissions are due by August 31. Recipients will be announced at the fall CAV meeting. You can contact Amy Petersen at MagistraP@gmail.com if you have any questions.

Dickinson Summer Workshops

Greetings from Carlisle, and happy spring! I wanted to let you know about this summer's Dickinson workshops. The Conventiculum will unfortunately not be running this year (next year for sure!) but we do have two online reading workshops, one in Latin, and one in Greek. I will be running the Latin one, along with my former colleague Meghan Reedy. The Greek one will be led by my current colleague, Scott Farrington. We would love to see any CAV members there. I hope you and yours are doing well!
