CAV FALL MEETING

The Fall Meeting will be held on Saturday, Sept. 25, VIRTUALLY on Zoom.

To register:

FLAVA

The Foreign Language Association of Virginia will hold its 2021 conference on October 7-9 VIRTUALLY.

Registration may be found on the FLAVA website:

INTRODUCTION OF FALL MEETING SPEAKERS

For what will be our (hopefully!) last fully virtual meeting, we are hosting three fantastic speakers:

Kate Tiffany is the Latin teacher and World Languages Department Chair at Fairfax High School. She received her B.A. from Randolph-Macon College and her M.A. from the University of Maryland. She served as the Co-chair of Computer Matters for the VJCL from 2017-2020. Her favorite weekend activity is getting cozy with a good book, an iced coffee, and her cats. In her talk, she will be sharing her “grows and glows” from her experience using the Suburani online textbook with her Latin I students: what she liked, what they loved, and where she had to supplement.

Richard Campbell is part of the living history group, Legio XX, founded in 1991 and still run by Matthew Amt. His role has developed into something more like an ‘aedile’, taking care of arranging events and organizing people. Though he has been interested in Roman and Greek mythology from early on, his long-term interest began with the inimitable Jane Hall, who was his Latin teacher in high school, 1969-1971. His enthusiasm for the education part of re-enactments really expanded when Legio XX was invited to VJCL around 2012, and it has grown to a much broader educational imperative each year.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Salvete omnes!

In the last message, I think we all felt hope that by the fall, surely - SURELY- the pandemic will have faded away. And for a while it seemed to be happening! Of course now we know there will be stops and starts in our trek back to things like in-person meetings, and we just are not there yet. On September 25th, we will be holding our fall meeting via Zoom once again. We never expected to become such Zoom-masters, but at least we can enjoy the program from the comfort of our own homes. The speakers will be a treat - you won't want to miss them!

In the spirit of camaraderie, I'd like to encourage you all to reach out to at least one colleague -- maybe an old friend, maybe the new teacher in your district who just moved here, maybe that person you've talked to a few times but not recently -- and invite them to attend. The meeting itself is free of course, but we hope you also encourage them to become CAV members. Membership is free the first year and a steal at only $15/20 per year after that. The Classical Association of Virginia has been supporting teachers and students since 1910 (!) with meetings, awards, contests and most importantly, a close network of Latin-loving colleagues at every level. We do need your membership support to continue these important programs. See the registration link on page 5, including special instructions about registering for the meeting and how to submit your dues payment.

Best wishes to everyone starting school soon!

Patty

2022 CLASSICAL ESSAY CONTEST TOPICS

- The CAV Classical Essay Contest is designed to recognize those students who have submitted outstanding essays in English on a topic appropriate to each level or class.
- The contest is open to students in the public and private middle and high schools of Virginia, and homeschoolers, whose teachers are current members of the Classical Association of Virginia.
- Essays shall be submitted in English on the following topics in the following divisions:
  - First Year Latin: Roman Houses Inside and Out
(Grades 6-8 will be graded separately from Grades 9-12)
  - Second Year Latin: Daily Life in Pompeii
  - Third Year Latin: Espionage in Ancient Rome
  - Advanced Latin (Latin III and above):
    - Vergil: Dux Femina Facti: Pivotal Women in Vergil's Aeneid
    - Poetry: Monumentum aere perennius: Immortality in Roman Poetry
    - History: Roman Imperial Women and their Role in History

As before: students who are in their third year of Latin who choose to do the general third year topic will be judged only with other third-year students. They may also submit an essay in one of the advanced topics. Essays should be roughly 1000 words, typed double space. The first page of the essay should include a title. The student's name should not appear on any page of the essay, and the pages of the essay should be numbered.

There will be a link to a form for submission of the essay and the information about the contestant. Please consult www.cavclassics.org/contests.htm in the very near future for this information.

If the form does not work for a contestant, note that the entry must come with the following information:

- Name and home address of the contestant;
- Name and address of the school;
- Name of the teacher;
- Year of Latin studied in '21- '22 (1st, 2nd, etc.);
- Student grade level;
- Level of contest;
- Essay topic.

Please contact me at csalowey@hollins.edu with any questions concerning the CAV Classical Essay Contest.

Deadline: Friday, April 1, 2022

The fee is $2.00 per student. Ineligible entries will be discarded. Teachers who are not members of CAV should send their $20.00 dues with the entrance fee. Make checks payable to the Classical Association of Virginia and send directly to Cliff Broeniman (thesauroscav@gmail.com) with a notation CAV Essay Contest.

Please note: Students, unless they make a written request otherwise, are giving the CAV permission to publish their names and work in any official publications. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded at the Spring 2022 meeting.

Each entry should include the contestant's full name, school, and teacher.

NUNTIANDA

CAV Professional Development Grant

Are you vaccinated and feeling ready to get out to do some traveling after being cooped up for a year? Or, have you discovered that you like staying at home on the computer and are now eager to sign up for a virtual conference or online course to help you improve your craft? Whatever your circumstances or preferences, CAV is here to help! Apply for a grant of up to $300 to help with any professional development experience your heart desires by going to bit.ly/CAVGrant. Submissions are due by August 31. Recipients will be announced at the fall CAV meeting. You can contact Amy Petersen at MagistraP@gmail.com if you have any questions.

CAMWS

It's not too late to join CAMWS (The Classical Association of the Middle West and South)! First-year membership is only $30, with ongoing membership only $65. Registration can be found at their website: <https://camws.org/membershiprenewal>.

The 100th Anniversary Meeting of CAMWS-SS scheduled for November 12-14, 2020, in Waco, Texas at the Hilton Waco hotel at the invitation of Baylor University has been cancelled and will be rescheduled for the fall of 2021. Updated information will be found here: <https://camws.org/node/897>.

Reminder: CAMWS offers travel awards to attend CAMWS-SS.

CAV Teacher Placement Service

Do you know of a Latin teaching position in your area? Or are you currently searching for a Latin teaching position? The CAV Placement Service offers a free program to bring together teachers seeking Latin positions in Virginia and schools in Virginia which are seeking Latin teachers. Schools send us listings of their positions, and we send these listings by e-mail to the teachers who have registered with the CAV Placement Service. We provide continuous updates from March until September. If you know of a position available, have the school principal or personnel office get in touch with the service. If you wish a position, send in your name and e-mail address. We ask schools and teachers to contact Jon D. Mikalson by e-mail at: jdm9x@virginia.edu. There are no charges for these services!

A Movie Night in Latin

Have you ever wanted to watch a movie in Latin? Ms. Stephanie Buckler of Stafford High School worked with her Latin III/IV class to dub the movie The Emperor's New Groove in Latin to make that possibility. You can watch this movie with your students on Our Latin Website, <https://tinyurl.com/saltationovaimperatoris>

Latin Teaching Position Open

Hunter Classical Christian School is looking for a middle school Latin teacher.
The contact person is Jeffrey Brown: 540.226.8068

Jim Bigger Award Update!

The 1st Annual Jim Bigger Memorial Award will be awarded to a deserving student for the first time this spring. Updated application forms will be available shortly.

SCOLT Conference

Calling All Virginia Classicists For SCOLT

Virginia (The Foreign Language Association of Virginia) is the local host for the 2022 Southern Conference on Language Teaching (SCOLT) Conference. This regional conference is open to all language teachers in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virgin Islands, Virginia, and West Virginia.

It is very important that we as classicists participate by putting in proposals and attending this conference. Sometimes, the Latin sessions are slim, but Virginia has a wealth of Latin and Greek teachers who are so generous in sharing their expertise and talents. So, let's put Virginia Classics on the map by making this conference an unforgettable one for all classicists who attend!

The 2022 SCOLT Conference will be held on March 31-April 2, 2022 at the Norfolk Waterside Marriott in Norfolk, VA, and the Conference Program Committee is accepting session proposals until October 15, 2021. Please complete this form to submit your proposal before the deadline! SCOLT will adhere to all safety protocols recommended by the CDC at the time of the conference.

Hope to see a lot of you in Norfolk in 2022 as Virginia classicists lead the way for a successful conference!
