CAV FALL MEETING

The Fall Meeting will be held on Saturday, Sept. 10th, at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.

FLAVA

The Foreign Language Association of Virginia will hold its 2022 conference on October 6th-8th at the Doubletree Hotel by Hilton in Williamsburg.

Registration may be found on the FLAVA website:
<http://flavaweb.org/>

MEET OUR FALL SPEAKERS!

We're set to begin the academic year with a fall meeting that includes a wonderful variety of presentations. First up, "Experiencing a Greek Sanctuary" with Jon Mikalson, who will have us create from our room a Greek sanctuary, with its altar, surrounding wall, dedications, statues, treasure house, and temple, and we will describe who does what and why in that space. Jon is Emeritus William R. Kenan, Jr. Professor of Classics at the University of Virginia, and his many books on Greek religion mean that he will be the most expert guide for our sanctuary experience.

After our box lunch (make your choices on the registration form), we'll get to meet Jon's newest colleague, Jacqueline Arthur-Montagne, whose talk "School Play: Reperforming Greek Myth in Roman Rhetorical Education" will examine what and how students learned about Greek myths in Roman schools of rhetoric. Surveying the evidence of school papyri and ancient teaching manuals, we observe that student exposure to Greek myth was not limited to reading epic and tragic poetry. Instead, mythic education in the Roman world relied on a radically active pedagogy of reperformance, in which teenage students role-played as canonical characters like Niobe, Bellerophon, and Orestes. Jackie joined the faculty at the University of Virginia in 2021 as one of the first cohort of faculty in the Democracy Initiative, and her work focuses on ancient education.

Our day concludes with a pedagogy workshop from Jacquelyn Wilkins. The interactive demonstration "Latina Loquenda Est," will show how she uses student interest and current events to increase speaking proficiency. After a brief introduction to the activities, participants will role play different scenarios so that they can learn how to more fully implement or adapt these strategies. Resources, rubrics, and direction models will be provided. Jacquelyn has been teaching at E.C. Glass High School in Lynchburg since 2017, and many of you know her from her thirteen years working with Governor's Latin Academy, six of them as Director.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The professional highlight of the summer for me was attending the American Classical League Institute in Charleston, South Carolina in June. As happens at every conference, it was thrilling (μὲν) to be in the company of others who care about and work on the same things that I do. I learned so much from my colleagues—including new things to care about—and it was wonderful to have the opportunity to share my ideas and experiences with people who might find them useful.

Even better (δὲ) was the feeling of being part of the continuing succession of generations of teachers and scholars of the ancient world. I rubbed shoulders with my elders who gave their wisdom even as they treated me as a trusted colleague; I reconnected with peers who seemed like siblings in the ways we have a shared experience of education and time; and I got to see my own students blossoming into the profession, young teacher scholars who, along with so many in the generations younger than mine, are bringing new ideas and new energy and new perspectives that benefit our whole extended academic family.

I know I will take the joy from ACL with me into the new school year, the way a reunion sustains me for many months. And I can't wait to see our Virginia branch of the family in Charlottesville on September 10.

χαίρετε,

Amy

NUNTIANDA

CAV Teacher Placement Service

Do you know of a Latin teaching position in your area? Or are you currently searching for a Latin teaching position? The CAV Placement Service offers a free program to bring together teachers seeking Latin positions in Virginia and schools in Virginia which are seeking Latin teachers. Schools send us listings of their positions, and we send these listings by e-mail to the teachers who have registered with the CAV Placement Service. We provide continuous updates from March until September. If you know of a position available, have the school principal or personnel office get in touch with the service. If you wish a position, send in your name and e-mail address. We ask schools and teachers to contact Jon D. Mikalson by e-mail at: jdm9x@virginia.edu. There are no charges for these services!

CAV Professional Development Grant

If you are planning to attend a conference, take a class, or travel, all in the interest of becoming a better teacher of the classics, CAV would like to help you out! CAV's Professional Development Grant fund is full and ready to make your goals a reality so don't be hesitant to apply. Go to bit.ly/CAVGrant by August 31 to get more information and to fill out the online application. Grant recipients will be announced at the fall CAV meeting.

CAV Latin Tournament Call for Feedback

Calling all Virginia Latin teachers who have given the CAV Latin Tournament in the past, or who might be interested in it for the future: The Latin Tournament is looking for feedback on its format, administration, and participation - in order to help keep the exams as relevant and useful to as many classrooms as possible.

Please take a moment to share your thoughts through this survey, or email me directly at kevinsjefferson@gmail.com. Thank you in advance for all of your feedback!

CAV Classical Essay Contest Topics Revealed!

- The CAV Classical Essay Contest is designed to recognize those students who have submitted outstanding essays in English on a topic appropriate to each level or class.
- The contest is open to students in the public and private middle and high schools of Virginia, and homeschoolers, whose teachers are current members of the Classical Association of Virginia.
- Essays shall be submitted in English on the following topics in the following divisions:
  - First Year Latin: Coming of Age in Ancient Rome (Grades 6-8 will be graded separately from 9-12)
  - Second Year Latin: Theater, Spectacles, and Races: Roman Entertainments
  - Third Year Latin: Julius Caesar: The Man and the Myth
  - Advanced Latin (Latin III and above):
    - Vergil: Omens, Prophecies, and Visions on Aeneas' Journey
    - Poetry: A Day in the Life of a Roman Poet
    - History: "Civis Romanus sum!": The History of Roman Citizenship

As before: students who are in their third year of Latin who choose to do the general third year topic will be judged only with other third-year students. They may also submit an essay in one of the advanced topics. Essays should be roughly 1000 words, typed double space. The first page of the essay should include a title. The student's name should not appear on any page of the essay, and the pages of the essay should be numbered.

Further information about essay submission will come in the Winter 2022 newsletter.

CAV News submissions due Aug 1, Nov 1, Mar 1, May 1. Please notify us directly when your email address changes! Send changes to CAVClassics@gmail.com
